Winner—B. c. by Deceiver—Elsie B.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 19 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand. The next four were driving hard. The Elk was the best, best ridden and at the finish had something left. Fridolin ran a good race. She was slow in getting away, had much bad luck and from the three furlong post home was under keen pressure. Kathrine Ennis ran a good race considering it was her first out. She, like Fridolin, was slow in getting away, and had a rough journey. Glove had no excuses. Tola seems to be promising. He showed a flash of speed, but hung a trifle at the end and was perhaps short. Reina del Celia quit badly in the stretch. Orrie Goan is a very uncertain youngster. Watita was interfered with shortly after the start.

Overweights—Remark, 1 pound; Watita, 1.
The Elk, place, 9 to 10; show, 1 to 2. Fridolin, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Kathrine Ennis, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Br. g. by Sir Dixon—Villette.
Went to post at 3:10. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth were driving to the limit. Major Dixon has the making of a good race horse. His win was a most sensational one. He acted clumsily at the post, got away fairly well and simply loaded all down the backstretch. About the three-furlong post Waldo drew his whip and the Major passed those in front like a flash and at the end had everything his own way. Miss Mae Day showed a fine turn of speed and seemed to be running well in hand on the far turn, but there was no possible chance to stall off the winner's stout rush. Boney Boy ran a cracking good race. He had all kinds of bad luck, but stood it gamely and finished with a tremendous rush. Georgie will probably be hard to beat the next time she starts. Bradford's ride on Livadia was a joke. Algareta did the best she could. Nora C. showed a lot of speed. Protect ran a fine race and can win when placed properly.

Scratched—(20355) John A. Morris, 107.
Overweights—Protect, 34 pounds; Georgie, 2; Boney Boy, 3; Algareta, 24.
Major Dixon, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Miss Mae Day, place, 9 to 20; show, out. Boney Boy, show, 4 to 5.

20416 THIRD RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—Br. c. by Kingston—Miss Dixie.
Went to post at 3:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a terrific drive. In fact, the first five were hard at it. Tyr is perhaps the best two-year-old on local tracks. He won simply on his own courage. Waldo, however, displayed as much gameness as the colt did. He was in a bad position on the stretch turn, but took a long chance and bumped his way through. From the sixteenth post home all Waldo did was to use his whip, having no hold whatever of Tyr's head. Bonnie Lissak did her very best, and had no excuses. Harry Herenden appeared a sure winner at the head of the stretch, but showed his "Faustus" in the final furlong, stopping badly. Dandy Jim met with interference at every turn and Vititoe's ride on him was deserving of criticism. Fancy Wood ran a dull race. Possart showed the most speed early, but when the display of staying power was asked for he was not there.

Overweights—Fancy Wood, 2 pounds.
Tyr, place, 9 to 5; show, 9 to 10. Bonnie Lissak, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Harry Herenden, show, evens. Fancy Wood, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

20417 FOURTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. The Superior Stakes. $700 added. $150 to second; $75 to third. 3-year-olds. Handicap.

Winner—Br. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Romana.
Went to post at 4:10. Off at the first break. Start fair. Won with something to spare after a hard early drive. The other two were doing their best. The Unknown is a colt of considerable quality, and Vititoe rode him as though he was aware of that fact and with the idea that he was on the best horse, and full of confidence, he naturally rode a grand race. Florizar perhaps would have won had he been favored with luck. As it was he got the worst of the start and was also interfered with sharply in the stretch. Star Chamber did all that was expected of him.
The Unknown, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Florizar, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Star Chamber, place, 1 to 3; show, out.

Winner—Blk. c. by Duke of Montrose—Bow Knot.
Went to post at 4:39. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily at the end after hard early punishment. Hard Knot ran a smashing good race under a loose ride. Buchanan wobbled all over him in the stretch and was more of a handicap than a help. Brigade, after running around the entire field on the far turn and being poorly handled throughout, ran a good race. Found was evidently affected by her race of the day before and after showing dazzling speed quit badly in the stretch. Highland Lad dislikes a route. He is a sprinter pure and simple and as far as he went displayed excellent form. John Baker would have done better had the track been muddy. Nobleman showed some speed.

Scratched—20327 Scarlet Lily, 86.
Overweights—John Baker, 3 pounds; Brigade, 2; Nobleman, 1.
Hard Knot, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Brigade, place, 9 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Found, show, 1 to 2. John Baker, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Fordham—Laura Allen.
Went to post at 5:10. Off at the first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second whipped out. Third and fourth were driving to the limit. Jim W. ran true to his form and won without an effort. Dagmar and Winkfield set out to stop Jim W. in the first part of the race but they got the worst of the argument. Handpress is strictly a mud runner. He did the best he could and then was beaten off. Mitten is a common sort of a filly and is also a gay deceiver. The journey Mellocole had was a rough one. The last two are "has beens."

Scratched—20292 Limestone, 103.
Jim W., place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Dagmar, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Handpress, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

kept her on the outside all the way and won drawing away. Sagacity was probably a bit short and she tired in the last sixteenth. Ice Drop showed but little speed in the first part of the trip, but was gaining at the end and would have been third in a few more strides. Miss Fonsoland
